Message from you local Inspector, Ed Brown

There have been no significant incidents in the last month. As a result of positive media reports in the Quay magazine there has been good attendance at the Police station during opening times to meet the local beat manager, Pc Jason Pegden. The next open day at the Police station is on 26th March. There has been an increase in reports of Hare coursing across the area and liaison has continued with local landowners. The use of FastSMS will continue to be used to give real time information regarding incidents and vehicles to look for. Additional patrols have been conducted utilising the Police drone which has assisted in targeting and patrolling the larger rural areas. As the weather begins to improve it is a good time to remind people of the need to protect against outboard thefts and all local boat yards will continue to receive visits. The next rural crime meeting with Chief Constable Bailey and PCC Green is on 11th March at Holkham.

Message from your Engagement Officer, PC Pete Davison

Further to last month's message about when to call 999; using 101 for situations that do not require an immediate police response helps keep 999 available for when there is an emergency. You can call 101 to report a crime that has already happened, seek crime prevention advice or make us aware of any policing issues in your local area. You can also report a number of crimes through our website using one of our online forms > <https://www.norfolk.police.uk/contact-us/report-it>. Everyday our contact and control room receives over 900 calls, many of which do not concern the police. A list of non-police related calls we received last year, and advice about the agency that should have been contacted can be found on our website > <https://www.norfolk.police.uk/contact-us/101-when-call>.
